

IMB staff CV

Iulia Iatco – is KBBE in Moldova. Her area of interest is biotechnology of marine microorganisms. Now she is at the last stage of her PhD thesis.
In this project Iulia will coordinate Consortium, and will be responsible for the reporting.

Prof. Valeriu Rudic. Director of IMB. Is founder of new scientific school – phycobiotechnology., in it collaborate not only scientific researches, but also students, Master's and PhD students. More than 30 PhD and Doctorates thesis were held by my supervising. Our Institute has strong relations with different scientific centres in Russia, Ukraine, Belarus, as well as from European countries and USA and Canada. Is expert in european and NATO projects evaluation. Represents the Republic of Moldova in different international organisations (in NATO, expert from Moldova in Bioethics Committee of Council of Europe), participates in national and international scientifically events, were represent not only laboratory and Institute, but also the Moldova Academy of Sciences.

Member of:

Moldova Academy of Sciences, American Romanian Academy of Arts and Sciences, NewYork Academy of Sciences, Senate of Moldova State University, Moldavian Microbiological Society, president International Society for Applied Phycology, European Society of Microalgae Biotechnology, Editorial board of the International Scientific Journal «Algologia» (Kiev) International Journal on Algae (New York), Acta Universitatis Cibiniensis (Sibiu, Romania), “Științele vieții” AȘM, “Intellectus”.

Committee of experts of INTAS Programme(1998-2002)

Steering Committee on Bioethics, CDBI and CDBI-BIOTECH, Council of Europe(1999-2005)

NATO Advisory Panels of Life Science and Technology(1999-2002)

Bureau of the Section of Biological, Chemical and Ecological Sciences, prim-vice academician coordinator

National Council for Accreditation and Attestation