

SIT staff CV

Professor Mark Shamtsyan

PhD from Saint-Petersburg State Institute of Technology, in 1991 in Biotechnology
1991-1993 - Researcher - Central Research Institute of Taiyo Kagaku Co., Ltd. (Yokkaichi, Japan).

Senior lecturer, then associate professor, professor in biotechnology at the Department of Technology of Microbiological Syntheses of Saint-Petersburg State Institute of Technology, since 1999.

Also, from 2006 Consultant for Taiyo Kagaku Co., Ltd., Japan.

Leader of Russian teams in international scientific cooperation projects:

2001 - 2003 - INTAS FOOD 00-876 Project.

2005 - 2006 - INTAS 04-84-328 Project.

2009 –2011 – Russian – Chinese Bilateral Scientific Cooperation Project.

Lecturing in Biotechnology.

Supervision of Master- and Ph.D-students.

Member of Advisory Board of Polish Journal of Food and Nutrition Sciences.

Member of International Scientific and Organizing Committees of 3rd Central European Congress on Food in Sofia, Bulgaria, 2006.

Member of International Scientific Committee of 5th Central European Congress on Food in Bratislava, Slovakia, 2010.

Co-Chair of International Conference for Food Factories EHEDG – Russia, St. Petersburg, 2010.

Member of the Scientific Committee of EFFoST Annual Conference, Dublin, Ireland, 2010.

Member of International Scientific Committee of EHEDG World Congress, Ohrid, Macedonia, 2011.

Member of International Scientific Committee of 6th Central European Congress on Food in Novi Sad, Serbia, 2012. (upcoming)

Chair of the 1st North European Congress on Food, St. Petersburg, Russia, 2012 (upcoming).

President of RUSFoST

Chair of Russian section of EHEDG

GHI (Global Harmonization Initiative) ambassador to Russia