

Adriana BIRCA

PhD in economy, professor in "George Baritiu" University of Brasov (Romania) and Technical University of Moldova. She is engineer-technologist, master in Industrial International Project Management (Technological University of Belfort-Montbéliard (France) and "Transilvania" University of Brasov (Romania).

PhD in the Academy of Economic Studies, specialty Science of Food Commodities. Prof. Adriana Birca has training in Romania, Russia, Ukraine, Moldova. Specialist in food and non-food technologies, food hygienic, food security.

Coordinator of two international projects – Moldova-Romania, Ukraine-Romania, member in 7 international projects, Beneficiary of the EU project „Temporary return of representatives of the Moldovan Scientific Diaspora”.

Participant at international congresses, conferences and symposiums in Bulgaria, Romania, Hungary, Belarus, Moldova and Russia. Member of editorial boards in prestigious international journals and conferences proceedings (Ukrainian Food Journal (Ukraine), Journal of Food and packaging (Bulgaria), International Conference SIPA (Romania, Hungary), International Conference CDAIBE (Romania) etc.

Member of the Romanian Distribution Association (Scientific Association), affiliated to International Distribution Association AIDA – Brussels; of the Romanian Association of Marketing; of the Scientific Association „Economists Club of Brasov”, Member of the Romanian Society for Information Technology in Agriculture, Food, Environment and Tourism (ROSITA), affiliated to the International Association EFITA.

Telephones + 40 268 542 147

Mobile: + 40 720 353 525

E-mail birca_adriana@yahoo.com

birca@nutrilab.eu